

Cry, Cry, Cry

by Angela Bond

Intro: C7

Gmin C7 :)) Cmin7 Adim7 D7
Sometimes I catch a glimpse of what we used to be Sometimes it comes rushing back
Those days of you and me
And the tears swell up in my throat
And they won't let go
No, no, they won't let go

CHORUS

Gmin D C7 Gmin
I could cry cry cry
But it don't matter anymore
I could cry cry cry
But there's nothing left for me to cry for

Sometimes what's done is done,
You can get old, but never get young
Sometimes what's done is done
The snake has bit, the bee has stung
What will the next years be
Can we both be happy?
I can't cry no more

CHORUS

Gmin D C7 Gmin
I could cry cry cry
But it don't matter anymore
I could cry cry cry
But there's nothing left for me to cry for

I could cry cry cry
Cause you chose someone else to live your years
I could cry cry cry
But I'm beyond tears

If you're going to leave me
Just go!
I don't want you no more
Just go, go, go, go!

What will the next years be
Can we both be happy?
I can't cry no more

CHORUS

Gmin D C7 Gmin
I could cry cry cry
But it don't matter anymore
I could cry cry cry
But there's nothing left for me to cry for

I could cry cry cry
Cause you chose someone else to live your
years
I could cry cry cry
But I'm beyond tears

If you think I'm weak
That I hang on
Don't look back
Cause I'll be gone
I'm strong and I will live without you
Watch and see
Wait and see
I won't cry no more
I won't cry no more
Cause I'm beyond tears
